Here I am Lord, I come to do your work, for whatever I do to the least of my brothers, I do to you.

Service as a Christian is giving back to God those gifts of time, strength, caring, and talents with which we are entrusted. In the Old Testament we read of sacrifices of the best of their flocks. We must give our best, not our leftovers. Our service is not to be thought of as something to complete, get over with, be finished with, task to be done with, but rather a new way of life.

And so as a CHURCH we are called to serve, to be faith-filled servants, stewards of our time and talents. Your participating is a sign, a way of new life, an example to all of us that you are prepared to live out your Catholic Christian Commitment.

Now God gives us many kinds of special abilities, but it is the same Holy Spirit who is the source of them all. There are different kinds of service to God, but it is the same Lord we are serving. There are many ways in which God works in our lives, but it is the same God who does the work in and through all of us who are his. The Holy Spirit displays God's power through each of us as a means of helping the entire church. ~1 Corinthians 12:4-7
